Fundamental Beliefs in Islam
(Belief in the Last Day)

- The Last day is the Day of Resurrection on which people will be resurrected to receive recompense and reckoning . It is named as such because there is no day after it. On this Day the people Al-Jannah will settle in their dwellings, and the people of An-Naar (Hell) will reside in there.Five Steps of Age: In Islam all human beings go through four steps of age:
- The age in the womb is where the body acquires its soul. The fetus is imbued with a soul from God. The soul, however, is completely innocent and lacking all worldly knowledge, which is reflected by a baby's helplessness.
- The age in the mortal world is the stage of life from the moment of birth from the womb to the moment of death.
- The age of the grave is the stage after death in the mortal world, where the soul is stored in Barzakh which results in a cold sleep state, awaiting the Day of Judgment.
- The age of the hereafter or rest of eternity is the final stage commencing after the Day of Judgment and all of humanity has received their judgment from God.

Barzakh:

- In Islamic eschatology, Barzakh (Arabic: برزخ) is the intermediate state in which the soul of the deceased is transferred across the boundaries of the mortal realm into a kind of "cold sleep" where the soul will rest until the Qiyamah (Judgement Day). The term appears in the Qur'an Surah 23, Ayat 100.
- Trial of the Grave:
  - The trial of the grave, wherein all will be asked: Who was your Lord? What was your religion? Who was your prophet?
  - The grave will be a place of either extreme pain and torment or extreme pleasure and happiness.
