

LECTURE NO 1

HS-403: Management and Entrepreneurship

Engr. Tehseen Ahsan

Assistant Professor, Computer Engineering Department
HITEC University Taxila Cantt, Pakistan

Management vs. Entrepreneurship

Difference between Management and Entrepreneurship

Entrepreneurship

- Entrepreneurship is the control and deployment of resources to create an innovative economic organization or start-up for the purpose of profit and growth under the condition of risk and uncertainty. A successful and sustainable business requires entrepreneurship and innovation.
- Entrepreneurship is a mindset, an attitude and taking a particular approach to doing things.
- Entrepreneurship often requires creativity and innovation while addressing a new opportunity or concern in a new way.

Difference between Management and Entrepreneurship

Management

- Management is one of the arts of getting things done through and with people in the formally organized group.
- So management is an individual person or group of people that accept responsibilities to run the organization.
- Management generally brings all the' (Men and Women, Money, Machines, Materials, Methods, and Markets) together to run the business and to achieve the objective organization.

Difference between Management and Entrepreneurship

Entrepreneurship Activities

- Creating or planning a new product.
- Entering into new markets and strategizing the next marketing move.
- Finding a new business venture.
- Taking an idea and executing them.

Management Features

- Getting work done through people.
- Result oriented.
- Leadership skill.
- Time management.
- Its group activity and not an individual activity.
- Separate from ownership.
- Use a professional approach at work.
- Reliability

Difference between Management and Entrepreneurship

#1. Meaning

Entrepreneurship

It is process of creating enterprise by taking financial risk in order to get the profit.

Management

It is an overall business activity which is getting done through and with people in formally organized group.

Difference between Management and Entrepreneurship

#2. Function

Entrepreneurship

Business start-up and venture.

Management

Look after ongoing operation.

Difference between Management and Entrepreneurship

#3. Status

Entrepreneurship

Owner.

Management

Employee.

Difference between Management and Entrepreneurship

#4. Rewards

Entrepreneurship

Profit for risk bearing.

Management

Salary as reward for work.

Difference between Management and Entrepreneurship

#5. Risk

Entrepreneurship

Risk associated with entrepreneurship.

Management

Management does not accept any risk.

Difference between Management and Entrepreneurship

#6. Goal

Entrepreneurship

Entrepreneur set the goal.

Management

Management implies the goal set by entrepreneur.

Difference between Management and Entrepreneurship

#7. Decision Making

Entrepreneurship

Make decision on personal perception and gut feelings.

Management

Make decision after collecting detailed information and reaching operative conclusion.

Difference between Management and Entrepreneurship

#8. Fraud

Entrepreneurship

Entrepreneur is not get involve in fraudulent behaviour.

Management

A manager may involve or cheat by not working hard.

Difference between Management and Entrepreneurship

#9. Innovation

Entrepreneurship

Is the innovator.

Management

Is the executor.

References

- ❑ Based in part on materials by Ms. Samar Masood (Lecturer in HITEC University Taxila Cantt).