

LECTURE NO 12: Entrepreneurial Vision and Mission

Engr. Tehseen Ahsan

Assistant Professor, Computer Engineering Department
HITEC University Taxila Cantt, Pakistan

ORGANIZATION OF LECTURE 12

1. Vision Statement.
2. Vision Statement Examples.
3. Mission Statement.
4. Mission Statement Examples.
5. Vision Statement v/s Mission Statement.
6. Developing Vision and Mission Statement.
7. Steps to developing Vision and Mission Statements.
8. Importance of Vision and Mission Statements.
9. Characteristics of a Vision Statement.
10. Characteristics of a Mission Statement.
11. Components of Vision Statement.
12. Components of Mission Statement.

1. Vision Statement

- A vision statement describes what a company desires to achieve in the long-run, generally in a time frame of five to Ten years, or sometimes even longer. A vision statement describes where the company aspires to be upon achieving its mission.

2. Vision Statement Examples

1. To be the Region's Leader by providing Quality Healthcare Services. (Shifa International Hospital, Islamabad Pakistan).
2. The vision of the PIZZA HUT is that reach on the top of the peak to provide best service and taste & To see Yum on customer s face.
3. Be the global leader in convenient foods and beverages by winning with a purpose. (PepsiCo).

3. Mission Statement

- A mission statement is an action-oriented statement, declaring the purpose an organization serves to its audience. It often includes a general description of the organization, its function, and its objectives.

4. Mission Statement Examples

1. Healthcare with Compassion for all. (Shifa International Hospital, Islamabad Pakistan).
2. We take pride in making a perfect pizza and providing courteous and helpful service on time all the time. Every customer says, "I'll be back! We are the employer of choice offering team members opportunities for growth, advancement, and rewarding careers in a fun, safe working environment. We are accountable for profitability in everything we do, providing our shareholders with value growth. (Pizza hut).
3. Creating more smiles with every sip and every bite. (PepsiCo).

5. Vision Statement v/s Mission Statement

- A vision statement looks forward and creates a mental image of the ideal state that the organization wishes to achieve. It is inspirational and aspirational and should challenge employees.
- A mission statement is a concise explanation of the organization's reason for existence. It describes the organization's purpose and its over all intention. The mission statement supports the vision and serves to communicate purpose and direction to all major stakeholders.

6. Developing Vision and Mission Statement

- Learn what is important to people in your community?
- Decide what to ask?
- Decide on the general focus of your organization.

7. Steps to developing Vision and Mission Statement

1. Have managers read related articles.
2. Have managers prepare a vision and mission statement for the organization.
3. Merge the documents into one and distribute.
4. Gather feedback from managers.
5. Meet to revise the final document.

8. Importance of Vision and Mission Statements

1. To ensure unity of purpose within the organization.
2. To provide a basis, or standard, for allocating organizational resources.
3. To establish a general tone or organizational climate.
4. To facilitate the translation of objectives into a work structure.
5. To specify organizational purposes.

9. Characteristics of a Vision Statement

- It should answer the question what do we want to become?
- It provides the foundation for developing a comprehensive mission.
- It should be established first and foremost the mission.
- It should be short (one sentence if possible).
- Participation from many managers is important in developing the mission statement.

10. Characteristics of a Mission Statement

- It answers the question, "what is our business? "
- Declares the firm's reason for being "Why do we exist? "
".
- It distinguishes one firm from another.
- It articulates the company's purpose both for those in the organization and for the public.
- 90% of all companies have used a mission statement in the previous five years.

11. Components of Vision Statement

1. Future Oriented- What will the organization look like, feel like, think and say in the future? Where is the organization headed? What does your full potential look like?
2. Motivating and Memorable- What notable and emotionally connecting future direction do you want to keep reaching and pushing toward?
3. Purpose-driven- What is the larger sense of purpose you are striving to obtain?
4. Unique- Can you substitute your strategic vision statement for others inside or outside your industry?

12. Components of Mission Statement

" A good mission statement should accurately explain why your organization exists and what it hopes to achieve in the future. "

1. Customers- Who are the firm's customers?
2. Product or Services- What are the firm's major products or services?
3. Markets- Geographically, where does the firm operate?
4. Technology- Is the firm technologically current?
5. Concern for survival, growth, and profitability- Is the firm committed to growth and financial soundness?

Thank You