

Lesson no 15

Plagiarism

What is plagiarism?

- Taking text or Idea
- From another writers work
- And using them in your own words without acknowledging the source in an accepted manner
- In academic work plagiarism can be a serious offence

Example

Review paper

Golden rice and it's impact on Human health

Text Plagiarism

Image Plagiarism

Video Plagiarism

Audio Plagiarism

Types of plagiarism

- Direct plagiarism
- Self plagiarism
- Mosaic plagiarism
- Accidental plagiarism

Why shouldn't I plagiarise?

- Not being fully aware of what plagiarism is
- Short- term panic response when an assignment is due and time is short
- Feeling a desperate need not to be seen as a failure and so copying to try to ensure 'success'
- Different academic traditions

CREATION

PLAGIARISM

Positive reasons for not plagiarizing

Pride in your work

Real level of Attainment

UK academic Traditions

How to avoid Plagiarism?

www.WritePass.com/Journal

Plagiarism in practice _ what is it?

- Copying from a single source
 - A published book
 - A published article
 - The internet
 - An essay from an essay bank
 - A piece of work previously submitted by another student for the same or a similar assignment
 - Copying from a text which is about to be submitted for the same assignment

- Copying from several sources
- Paraphrasing
- Collusion
- Reuse of programming code
- Use of Multimedia

TO AVOID PLAGIARISM

Use online tools to check for plagiarism

Provide links you have referred to

Write in your own words

DONT
COPY

Plagiarism-How do I avoid it?

- Use of Quotations
- Making Notes
- Paraphrasing
- Cite all Sources used
- The text book
- Collusion
- Copying from the web or purchasing essays

CUT & PASTE

Identification

- Electronic Detection
- Penalties
- The Best Approach(Look at your work again and again .If you still Feel in doubt-ask your tutor before you submit the assignment.

Glossary

- Citing
- Citation
- Bibliography
- Reference