

FOREIGN POLICY OF PAKISTAN

OUTLINE OF THE LECTURE

- MEANING,
 - DEFINITION,
 - TOOLS,
 - IMPLEMENTATION OF FOREIGN POLICY,
 - CHARACTERISTICS,
 - SYMBIOTIC TRIANGLE,
 - ELEMENTS,
 - LEVELS OF ANALYSIS,
 - GLOBALIZATION,
 - IMPORTANCE,
 - VISION OF QUAID,
 - FRAMING,
 - DETERMINANTS
-

MEANING

No man is an island entire of itself; every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main;

- Foreign policy refers to a consistent course of actions followed by one nation to deal with other nation or region, or international issue.
- A states foreign policy may reflect broad national objectives or be a very specific response to a particular situation.
- It mirrors the internal make up , values and goals of a nation state and set the parameters for its interaction along with its regional as well as global environment.

-
- In the simplest way, the foreign policy can be understood as the connections or association amongst the sovereign states.
 - However, in the broader perspective the foreign policy is said to be those endeavours of the independent states which they embark upon to develop close relations between them in order to benefit from each other's achievements in various fields of human activity.
 - Is the combination of rules, regulations and principles through which an independent state establish relationship with other states.

-
- No state can live in isolation. There is a need of interaction. The linkages between internal & external environment are very necessary to create harmonious relations among the peoples living in the different regions.
 - The national interests and identity, economic reasons, peace and stability are the motives of foreign policy of a country.

DEFINITION

- “Foreign policy is the key element in the process by which a state translates its broadly conceived goals and interests into concrete course of action to attain these objectives and preserve interests.” Lincoln
- “Foreign policy is the systematic activities evolved by communities for changing the behavior of other states for adjusting their own activities in an international environment.”
George Modelski
- In words of Henry Kissinger, “every statesman has to grapple with two intrusive sets of influences: domestic and foreign.”

TOOLS OF FOREIGN POLICY

- The tools of foreign policy include
- diplomacy
- sanctions
- containment
- collective security
- deterrence
- and military force.

IMPLEMENTATION OF FOREIGN POLICY

- Political methods
- Psychological Methods
- Economical Methods
- Military Methods
- Cultural Methods

CHARACTERISTICS

- The principles of foreign policy aren't perpetual, but some of them holds prime importance
- In international relations there is no enduring animosity or friendship, but the national interest
- Foreign policy not only affects neighboring country's but also neighboring countries accept its affect.

-
- Technology leaves impact on foreign policy.
 - The national capacity of a state also exercises profound influence on the foreign policy of state.
 - The social structure of a society also exercise profound influence on its foreign policy.
 - Public opinion is another important element of country's foreign policy.

SYMBIOTIC TRIANGLE

FOREIGN POLICY

DEFENCE

ECONOMY

ELEMENTS AFFECTING FOREIGN POLICY

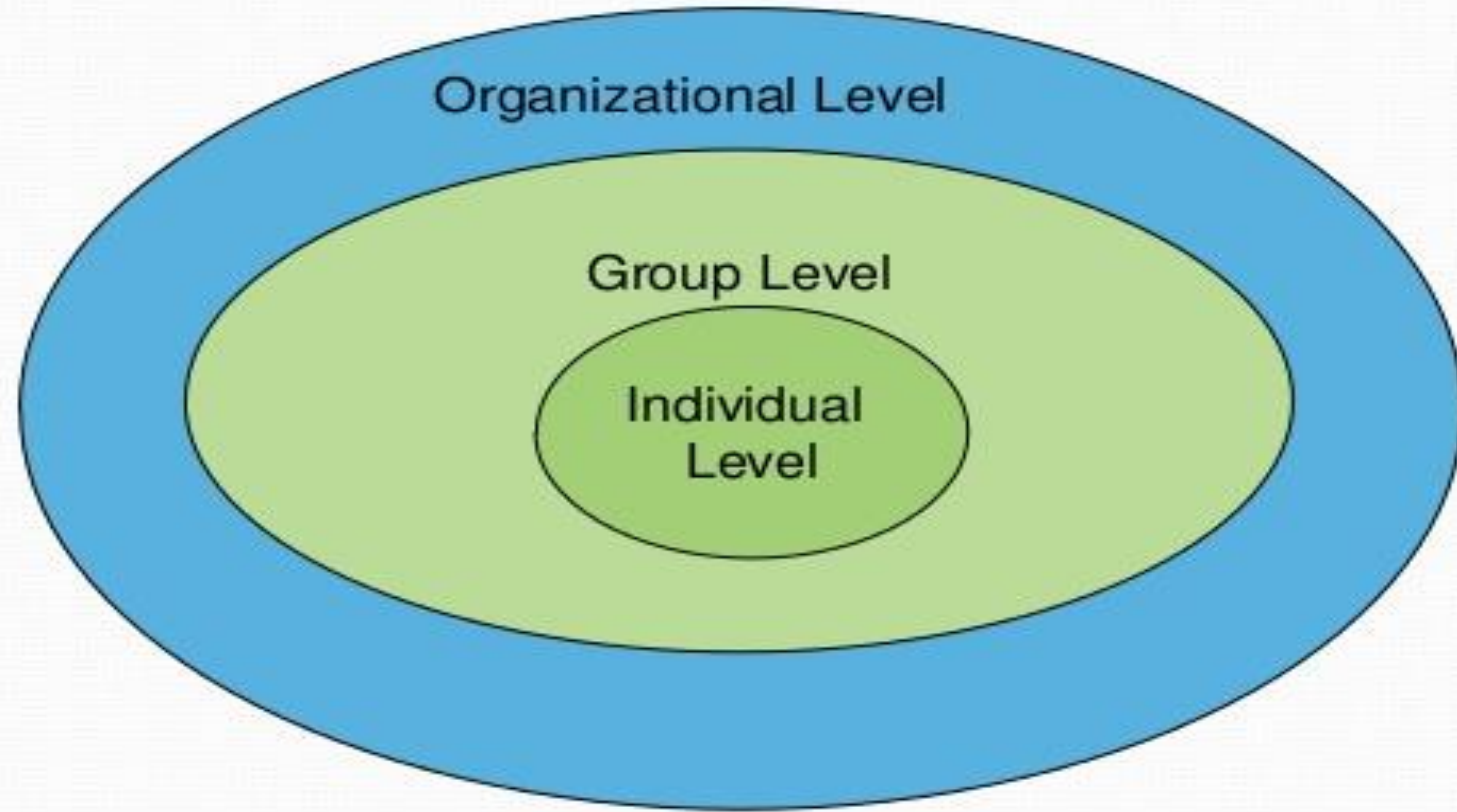

- The political organization found in a country also greatly influences the foreign policy. For example under authoritarian systems quick foreign policy decisions are taken.
- The press also plays a vital role in foreign policy formulation process.
- The nature of political accountability prevailing in a system also greatly influence the foreign policy of the state.
- The leadership also plays a vital role in the shaping of a country's foreign policy.
- The great power structure prevailing in the world politics also greatly influence the policy of a country

LEVELS OF ANALYSIS

- International system level: focuses on systemic characteristics such as power distribution
- State level: focuses on domestic factors and internal characteristics of states
- Individual level: focuses on individuals and their perceptions, choices, activities, etc.

GLOBALIZATION AND ITS IMPACT ON FOREIGN POLICY

- Globalization is the connection of different parts of the world resulting in the expansion of international cultural, economic, and political activities. It is the movement and integration of goods and people among different countries.
- In today's world where distance has shrink and world now has become global village. What's the impact of globalization on countries ?
- An impact of any incident happening in one country will left it effect on another country.
- However, its another side of the story that this particular change may leave little or major change affect on another country.

IMPORTANCE OF FOREIGN POLICY

- Its not possible to safeguard the country's interest unless necessary policies and strategies are to be formed, which is the result of adopting firm and practical foreign policy.
- To attain honor and security of one state and its political stability from other state's
- Through which a country can become friends from one country and the vise versa, by dealing with diplomatically to attain state's protection

QUAID'S VISION ON FOREIGN POLICY OF PAKISTAN

- “Our foreign policy is one of friendliness and goodwill towards all the nations of the world. We do not cherish aggressive designs against any country or nation. We believe in the principle of honesty and fair play in national and international dealings and are prepared to make our utmost contribution to the promotion of peace and prosperity among the nations of the world. Pakistan will never be found lacking in extending its material and moral support to the oppressed and suppressed peoples of the world, and in upholding the principles of the United Nations Charter.”

FRAMING OF FOREIGN POLICY

- Administrative Troika

President

Prime minister

Chief Of Army Staff

- Ministry of Foreign Affairs
- Intelligence Agencies
- Political Parties and Pressure Groups
- Parliament

DETERMINANTS OF FOREIGN POLICY

EXTERNAL DETERMINANTS

- Power Structure
- International Organizations
- Reaction of other states
- World Public Opinion
- Alliances

INTERNAL DETERMINANTS

- Historical Influence
- Size and Geography
- Natural Resources
- Economic Development
- Industrial Development

-
- Military Power
 - Population
 - Good Governance and Leadership
 - Quality of Diplomacy
 - Political Organization
 - Role of Media & Think-tanks

