

ROLE OF LEADERSHIP QUAID-E-AZAM

MOHAMMAD ALI JINNAH

- A politician, lawyer and Pakistan's first Governor-General
- Known as 'Quaid-I Azam' or 'Great Leader'
- He successfully campaigned and led Pakistan's independent from India and became its first leader.
- Muhammad Ali Jinnah was a history-making leader who changed the course of history. He possessed a visionary leadership, commitment to the cause and political mobilization capacity. He was a Charismatic Leader in the real sense of the meaning.

- Born on December 25, 1876, in Karachi, Pakistan.
 - His father was a prosperous Muslim merchant named Jinnah Poonja.
 - He received his early education at the Sindh Madrasah and later at the Mission School, Karachi
 - His father decided to send him to England to acquire business experience. However, he made up his mind to become a barrister.

- He then continue his study at Bombay University and at Lincoln's Inn in London. He completed his study in 2 years and became the youngest barrister of India.
 - He was inspired by Dadabhai Naoroji, who won an election & became a member of British parliament.
 - It was for the 1st time in the 50-year British rule in India that an Indian was able to made a way to the British parliament.

- He started his political life as Dadabhai Naoroji's personal secretary.
 - Jinnah joined the Indian National Congress in 1906, the largest political organization in India.
 - At this time, his role model was Gopal Khrishna Gokhale.
 - In his early career, he helped a lot of his Muslim workmates since at that time, Muslim people were minority.

- On January 25, 1910, he was elected to the Imperial Legislative Council. He and many people in the congress used to support the Great Britain in his early career because they thought the Great Britain will grant Indians political freedom.
 - He joined the Muslim League in 1913 but without leaving the congress.
 - In 1916, he became the president of the Muslim League. As a member of the Muslim League, Jinnah began to work for Hindu-Muslim unity.

- Mohammad Ali Jinnah really tried to bring the Muslim League and the Congress closer to each other. Jinnah also made an agreement between Indian National Congress and Muslim league in December 1916 known as Lucknow Pact.
 - The pact dealt both with the structure of the government of India and with the relation of the Hindu & Muslim communities. His effort to get the pact approved made him to a title of “Ambassador of Hindu-Muslim Unity” from Mrs. Sarojini Naidu (the congress leader).

Jinnah used the term NATION for the Muslims of India in Feb 1935 (Legislative Assembly). He argued that the combination of religion, culture, race, arts, music and so forth make a minority a SEPARATE ENTITY.

In March 1936 Bombay, he stated that the Muslims could arrive at a settlement with Hindus as TWO Nations. In 1937, he asserted that there is also a third party in India, the Muslims.

In 1939, he roared that the Muslims and Hindus are two nations and they are going to live as a nation and playing part as a nation:

“We are a nation with our own distinctive culture and civilization, language and literature, names and nomenclature, sense of values and proportion, legal laws and moral code, custom and calendar, history and tradition, aptitudes and ambitions; in short, we have our own distinctive outlook on life and of life. By all cannons of international law, we are a nation.”

Pakistan and the Holy Quran

- In the annual meeting of 1943 at Karachi Quaid-e-Azam said while clarifying the relation of Pakistan and Islam:
- “What is that relation which has made Muslim a single body? What is that rock on which the structure of Muslim Nation is restored? What is that base which has secured the safety of the boat of this Muslim Nation? That relation, rock and base is the Holy Quran.”

Origin of Pakistan

In his address at Ahmedabad on 29th December 1940 Quaid-e-Azam said,

“Pakistan existed from centuries. North West remained a homeland of Muslims. Independent states of Muslims should be established in these areas so that they might live according to the teachings of Islam”.

Islam is a complete code of life

- While addressing the students, in March, 1944 he said,
- “Our guide is Islam and this, is the complete code of our life. We neither need any red or yellow flag nor do we need any Socialism. Communism, Nationalism or any other ism”

Elimination of differences

- On 21 March, 1948 while addressing the people in Dhaka and said,
- “I want not to see you to talk as a Sindhi, Balochi, Punjabi and Bengali..... We are only Muslims.”

Protection of Muslim culture

- Addressing the army officers, in October, 1947, Mr. Jinnah said,
- “Our object was to create such a state where we can live freely, our culture and civilization get flourished, and where Islamic concept of social justice can flourish exactly.”

Criticism of the Western Economic system

On the eve of inaugurating the State Bank of Pakistan on 1 July 1948, the Quaid said,

“The Economic system of west is creating unsolvable problems for humanity. It has failed to provide justice to the people. We are to present an economic system based on original Islamic concept equality and social justice.”

Promotion of Islamic Ideology

- On 1st October 1947, while addressing the officers of the Government of Pakistan, he said,
- “Their mission is the establishment of a state where they could live like free people in their own socio-cultural set up necessary for the promotion of social justice and Islamic ideology”.

National Solidarity

- Quaid-e-Azam wanted to establish such a Pakistan which is strong & united from every respect. Once he said after the creation of Pakistan.
- “The people who think that they will demolish Pakistan they are foolish & not in their senses. There is no any power in the world who demolishes Pakistan. The roots of Pakistan are very deep & strong”

Destination of Muslims

- During the Congress rule from 1937 to 1939, the treatment to the Muslims convinced them of their destination. Quaid-e-Azam in clear words said:
- “The Britain wants to rule India, Mr. Gandhi and the Congress want to rule India and the Muslims. We say that we will not let either the Britain or Mr. Gandhi to rule Muslims, we want to be free”

Guidance & inspiration for constitution-making and Governance

He also talked of the modern notions of state, constitution, civil and political rights and democracy. He assured that constitution of Pakistan would be framed by the elected assembly.

He gave assurance of equality of all citizens and rights and freedom to religious minorities in the new state.
